Requirements:

To work with this clinic, we require that you are either an LGBT couple or LGBT individual seeking assisted reproductive technology. We require that all potential clients undergo a meeting with the clinic psychologist to ensure the preparedness for parenthood. Age and pre-existing medical conditions will also determine whether or not the clinic chooses to work with the client. For further questions, contact the clinic.

Disclaimer:

The Manhattan Fertility Clinic is the only LGBT centered fertility clinic in New York City. Our center is owned by a board certified Reproductive Endocrinologist who wants to make your journey of getting treatment for infertility, as painless and ethical as possible. We will not work with every individual.
